Remember

By Joy Harjo

Remember the sky that you were born under,
know each of the star's stories.
Remember the moon, know who she is.
Remember the sun's birth at dawn, that is the strongest point of time. Remember sundown and the giving away to night.
Remember your birth, how your mother struggled to give you form and breath. You are evidence of her life, and her mother's, and hers.
Remember your father. He is your life, also.
Remember the earth whose skin you are:
red earth, black earth, yellow earth, white earth
brown earth, we are earth.
Remember the plants, trees, animal life who all have their tribes, their families, their histories, too. Talk to them, listen to them. They are living poems.
Remember the wind. Remember her voice. She knows the origin of this universe.
Remember you are all people and all people
are you.
Remember you are this universe and this universe is you.
Remember all is in motion, is growing, is you.
Remember language comes from this.
Remember the dance language is, that life is.
Remember

Take the UCC Environmental Justice Quiz!

1. Did you know that UCC ministers coined the phrase “environmental racism” and played a leading role in giving birth to the environmental justice movement in the 1980s?

During a six week campaign of civil disobedience in 1982, a movement was born that made national headlines and introduced the world to the issue of environmental racism. Learn more about this inspiring movement in which the UCC became the driving organizational force.

2. Did you know that the UCC has formed a special partnership with a leading climate organization called 350.org, so that church green teams are now becoming 350 affiliates?

Members of the United Church of Christ have often worked with 350.org in the pursuit of justice and shared goals. This informal, longstanding relationship is now being deepened through a pilot endeavor that encourages and invites UCC green teams to affiliate with 350. Read about this exciting undertaking.

3. Did you know that in places like Flint, Michigan, and the Standing Rock Indian Reservation (North Dakota) the UCC has been actively involved in standing alongside those struggling for justice?

Solidarity is one form that love takes in the ministry of environmental justice. The goal is to find ways that local churches and members can actively support others who are facing environmental injustices.

4. Did you know that the UCC is building a powerful environmental network that stays connected through a blog and e-newsletter called The Pollinator?

The Pollinator is a digital platform of the UCC for the sharing of ideas and inspiration, so that we might become more fruitful in the pursuit of environmental justice. Its focus is the building of a faith-filled and faith-rooted movement for the care of creation. Read the Pollinator blog and sign-up for its newsletter.

MOUSE MORSELS

Happy August everyone! We mice hope you have been enjoying your summer travels and activities.

It has been a couple of months since we last reported, and boy do you all get out and about a lot! Jen and Matt Brozovich traveled to Mexico. This is an annual trip that they take with some friends. They had a great time. Cynthia and Karen Parkinson along with Curt and Bonnie Daly traveled to Alaska. They viewed some wonderful scenery and wildlife. Jeri Mitchell joined them in their travels. She is enjoying living in Alaska. How cool! Donilyn and Jim Thomson have been enjoying some exciting music venues. They saw Garth Brooks and said it was amazing! They then attended the Bravo Vail Music festival and heard The New York Philharmonic! The orchestra was conducted by Leonard Slatkin. We are sure it was inspiring. Floy and Quintry Jeffares-Whitehead have jaunted off to Germany to visit Floy's mother. We hope they have a good trip! Claire Kenney enjoyed three weeks in drama camp. She loved it! She learned a lot and sang a lot. Grant Kenney has been busy, too. He participated in circus camp again this year. He even got to play with a ring of fire! Grant is also quite the karate kid. He is practicing hard and participating in tournaments. He hopes to earn his black belt in September. Good luck, Grant! Erika Kenney is really enjoying her position as a physician for the Mullen Home. The Mullen home is an assisted living and nursing facility affiliated with Little Sisters of the Poor. Congratulations to Abbie Baker! Abbie was selected for the National Youth Leadership Forum: "National Security Diplomacy, Intelligence & Defense" held in Washington, DC. The mission of NYLF is to recognize and honor youth among the nation's top high-school scholars and prepare for a possible future career in public service. Abbie is the grand-daughter of Marilyn Olson and she is entering her sophomore year in high school. She lives in Cotopaxi, Colorado (pop. 47!) We are all proud of Abbie!! Speaking of Marilyn, she is taking over the job of church historian! We thank Marilyn and give a big thanks to Joanne Dyer, who managed this important job for many years. We've had a meaningful and celebrative worship this summer. We celebrated Pentecost Sunday with special music and a decorated sanctuary! The church picnic was also great fun. Bella Anderson and Levi Meyer participated in a skit about Balaam's Ass (read Numbers 22 in the Old Testament). A wonderful highlight of the summer was the baptism of Zoe and Tyce Brozovich on July 10. This was the highest attendance we've had all summer. It was very special. We are sad to report that Anne Cain will be moving permanently to North Carolina. She hasn't left yet so you still have time to say goodbye. We will miss you, Anne, but we know this is a good move for you! Our new sign is installed and now posting messages. Yay! We have been enjoying a lot of wonderful music during our worship this summer. Thanks to all our excellent musicians who have been providing our special music this summer. There is still more to come so we hope to see you in worship! Please share your news with us so we can share it with our church community!
